Barium Welcomes Synod

Synod of North Carolina To Meet At Presbyterian Orphans Home September 19-20

Rev. Charles H. Sides, Pastor of Little Joe's Church, To Preach Opening Sermon

Again Presbyterian Orphans' Home entertains the Mother Synod. This is the seventh time that the Synod has met here. Its coming is eagerly awaited. We always get a lift from the presence of so many interested friends.

The Synod has raised up the orphanage from the baby it was when the Home opened in 1891 with twenty children, in an old Hotel, with a few acres of land; to the present, with our large number of buildings, set in a fine property of over a thousand acres. While no new buildings have been erected since the Synod met here before, we are glad for them to come to see us and to check on the progress of the children from time to time.

Between meetings of Synod here, the Synod has its governing body for the orphanage in the person of the Regents of the Orphans' Home. This is composed of twenty members, ten men and ten women. One man and one woman are elected from each Presbytery; and a man and a woman are elected at large. Mr. J. Archie Cannon of Concord has been the President of the Board for five years and has given a great deal of his time and ability to this strenuous task. He will make the report of the Regents to the Synod when it meets. Other members of the Board are Mrs. Colt Robinson of Lowell who is the efficient secretary; Mr. N. H. Edgerton from Rocky Mount, Rev. Sam Howie of Fayetteville who was brought up at the Home and is now pastor of the Highland Church of Fayetteville; Mr. W. E. Price of Charlotte, now Moderator of the General Assembly; Rev. Ben F. Brown of Wallace; Mrs. E. C. Beatty of Mooresville; Mrs. Percy R. Smith of Wilmington; Mrs. C. E. Kerchner of Greensboro; Mrs. P. P. McCain of Southern Pines; Rev. M. S. Huske, of Reidsville; Mrs. W. C. Alexander of Durham; Mrs. R. W. Bruin of Henderson; Mrs. Fred L. Smyre of Gastonia; Mrs. R. A. Young of Charlotte; Mr. J. H. Thompson of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. H. S. Kisk of Winston-Salem.

Four new Regents will be elected at the next meeting of Synod. Rev. M. S. Huske has completed his second term as Regent; Dr. George Mauze has left the Synod to take work in Texas, Mr. R. W. Bruin has requested he not be re-elected; and Mrs. J. M. Hobgood has died, so their places will have to be filled. They have all done much for the Home and will be greatly missed.

Another group, that means much to the Home, compose the Permanent Committee on Orphans' Home. This Committee is very active in helping us promote the Thanksgiving Offering. The Committee has for its Chairman Mr. C. Spears Hicks of Durham who has done a magnificent job during his term of office. Other members of this Committee are Mr. Lee C. Goodman, Durham, N. C. Granville Presbytery; T. N. James, Lincolnton, N. C. Kings Mountain Presbytery; A. Ray Morrow, Charlotte, N. C. Mecklenburg, H. G. Hutaff, Lumberton, N. C. Fayetteville, Holland McSwain, Yanceyville, N. C. Orange, Harry F. Day, Winston-Salem, N. C. Winston-Salem, R. W. Witherington, Kinston, N. C. Albemarle, J. R. Gaither, Jr Newton, N. C. Concord, D. Home Mission Conference To Precede Opening of Synod Here On September 19

Rev. R. H. Stone, secretary of the Presynod Home Mission conference, has announced that the 12th annual meeting will be held at Barium Springs September 19 and 20, just preceding the annual Presbyterian synod of North Carolina. This conference calls together home mission workers, pastors, members of the woman's organization, Women of the Church, and young people of the synod who are guests of the executive committee of home missions of the synod for two days.

Mr. Stone said the theme of the conference will be "Our Task For Our Day." The meeting will begin at 2:30 p. m. Monday, September 19, and will continue until noon Tuesday, September 20. Rev. P. D. Patrick, chairman of the synod's committee, will preside, and a devotional service will be conducted by Rev. John McKinnon of Concord.

W. E. Price of Charlotte, moderator of the general assembly, will make the opening address on "The Imperial Task of Home Missions." Dr. J. M. Carr, Atlanta, Ga, new director of country church work, will speak on "The Town and Country Church." The closing address for the afternoon will be by Dr. R. S. Snyder of Charlotte.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock Rev. L. A. Taylor of Wilmington will preside and devotional exercises will be led by Dr. R. C. Long of Charlotte. New workers in home mission fields in the synod will be introduced. The premiere showing of a sound- movie prepared by the Home Mission committee in Atlanta will be shown, entitled, "Our Highland Heritage in Our Mountain Missions." Rev. O. V. Caudill of Salisbury, director of church construction, will speak on "Building Churches and Manses in the Synod." Dr. C. E. S. Kraemer of Charlotte will close with an address on the new study book, "Lift Up Your Eyes."

On Tuesday morning, September 20, Dr. Harold Dudley of Wilson will preside and Rev. Hardin King of Second Church, Lexington, will lead the devotions. This will be followed by an address by Dr. O. C. Williamson of Charlotte on "Recruiting for the Ministry."

Five speakers will make four minute addresses on the work in their presbytery. These speakers will be selected from Albemarle, Wilmington, Winston-Salem, Orange, and Mecklenburg Presbyteries.

Dr. C. Darby Fulton of Nashville, Tenn., executive secretary of foreign missions, will bring the conference to a close with a talk on the world situation.

Mrs. Rosa W. Allison Died Suddenly Here On August 22nd

Mrs. Rosa Waugh Allison who has been substituting as dietition while our regular dietition, Mrs. B. B. Hobgood is on vacation, died suddenly here on Aug. 22nd. Mrs. Allison fell on the steps of Rumple hall. As we go to press it has not been decided by the doctors whether she died from natural causes or was fatally injured in the fall.

Synod's First Child

Presbyterian Orphan's Home was the first and for a long time was the only Synodical Institution. For many years our colleges were owned and controlled by one or more Presbyteries. Now the Home shares

Mr. C. Spears Hicks, Chairman Permanent Committe on Orphans' Home.

the distinction of Synodical Control with Presbyterian Junior College and Queen's College

It was from a report of the agent of Education given at the Synod in October 1888 that the following resolution was adopted, "Resolved, That, in the judgment of Synod the time has come to take steps looking to the establishment of an Orphans' Home within our bounds and that a committee be appointed to take the matter in charge to consider and execute whatever may seem wise and practical in putting such an enterprise on a permanent basis."

There was also before the Synod a memorial from the "Home and Hospital" a private institution which had been maintained in Charlotte for several years to care for children. A commission with Dr. Jethro Rumple as chairman was appointed by the Synod and the resolution and the memorial were referred to them.

This commission sent out a circular to each Presbytery asking for its opinion. The project was approved unanimously and offers began coming in of sites in various parts of the state. Synod met in Charlotte in 1889 and approved the idea of establishing a Home. They elected the following Board of Regents to direct the affairs of the Home:

Mecklenburg Presbytery— Reverend Wm. McIlwaine, George Wilson, Esq., Mr. John E. Oats.

Concord Presbytery— Reverend J. Rumple, Mr. G. M. Love.

Orange Presbytery —Reverend D. I. Craig, Hon. A. M. Scales.

Wilmington Presbytery— Geo. Chadbourne, Esq.

Fayetteville Presbytery— Rev. erend D. D. McBride.

Albemarle Presbytery— Hon. D. G. Fowle.

This Board of Regents was directed to take over the group being maintained in Charlotte and to purchase ten acres of land near Charlotte and there open the Presbyterian Orphan's Home. Although a tract of land was bought near Charlotte the Home was not established there and the land was sold. But in 1891 the Regents bought the old hotel property here at Barium from Davidson College together with thirty-two acres of land for the price of $1,000.00. The old hotel was repaired and furnished for $1,222.58. So when the Home opened for its twenty children, 16 girls and 4 boys, the total investment was $2,222.58.

Reverend R. W. Boyd was the first superintendent here at Barium. His salary was $750.00 per year, Mrs. Boyd was employed as matron on a salary of $150.00 a

REV. CHARLES H. SIDES

IS CHRIST ADEQUATE?

"Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?" Luke 7:19

In a day when many are inclined to scoff at religion and to demean the claims of Christianity it is essential that we as Christian people meet this question without hesitancy. Is Christ adequate? Is he the one for whom the world waited during the passage of many centuries. Or should we be looking for another?

It is all too true that today there are those who are rejecting the claims of Jesus Christ. There are those who do not see in Jesus the answer to all life's problems. This is evidenced by the willingness of so many people to follow after peculiar religious groups which exclude Christ. It is shown by the dangerous and growing acceptance of Communism, which has showed that it not only has no place for Christ but it also definitely opposes Christ and his teachings. This modern refusal to accept Jesus shows itself further in those who call themselves followers of Jesus without once exhibiting the discipleship that Jesus must command if we be true followers of Him.

And so by word and action there are great hordes of the world's people who apparently do not believe that Christ is adequate. Let us consider this question in the light of this chapter from Luke's Gospel.

Jesus had just performed two amazing miracles. In Capernaum he had healed the centurion's servant who was near death. And in Nain he had raised from the dead the widow of Nain's son. Surely now all would know that this was indeed the Christ the Son of God. Else how could He do such wonderful things?

Well, reports of the miracles had spread quickly. Those who had witnessed them were filled with awe. The whole countryside was excited at the wonderful things Jesus had done. But was he adequate to meet all their needs?

I. There was still an unwelcome doubt

The people had praised God for these wonders and surely they were filled with awe that any mere man could accomplish them, and yet they were not quite ready to go all the way in their acceptance of Christ.

They at once recalled Elijah and Elisha and declared that a great prophet like them had arisen in their midst. Surely, they said, God hath visited His people. For he has raised up such a man as this right here among us in Galilee. The whole country was ringing with the exploits of this new prophet. All Galilee and Samaria and Judea were talking of him and of his wonderful power.

And yet there was still a great lack in their response to Jesus. The prophets of old had been mighty men of God, they had thundered out God's hatred of sin and the necessity of man's repentance, they had pointed the way home to God, they had begged for renewed consecration and for true and spiritual worship of God. But mighty men of God though thew were, they were still men!

It revealed certainly that these people had been thinking for them to call Jesus a prophet, but it showed too that they had not been thinking clearly. Perhaps the words and actions of the Lord had reminded them of the prophets, but it was not the plan of Jesus that men should look upon Him as a mere man. The whole success of His mission depended upon men's response to Him as the Son of God.

And so even yet there was this unwelcome doubt- yes, he is a great prophet, a mighty man of God, but no more. And this atti-

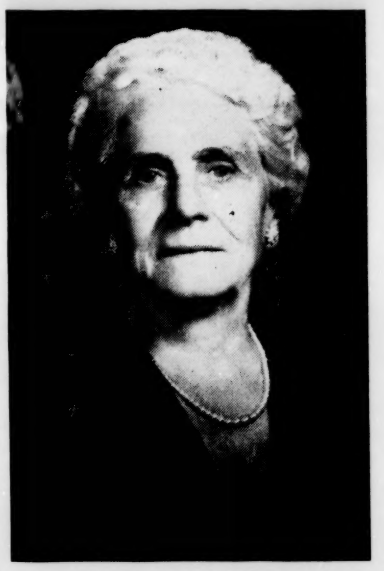
Mrs. J. B. Johnston



When the resignation of Mr. Johnston came it was doubly regretted because of Mrs. Johnston whom we all know and love and will miss very much as we will Mr. Johnston.

She has meant so much to the Orphanage family and has endeared herself to all visitors as well. She always has a smile and helping hand for everyone she meets, and has always opened her home to all the Barium children and to visitors that come for a short or a long visit.

Mr. Johnston could not have been the success that he has been if it had not been for Mrs. Johnston with her helpfulness and lovable spirit.

As he has been a Father to the children she has been a Mother and it is with double regret that Mr. Johnston has resigned. We hope that they will stay right on among our family here.

Mrs. Johnston has always been a great help and inspiration spiritually and her influence has been felt on the campus. All who know her appreciate her beautiful christian character and no word of criticism has ever been heard from a worker or a child.

Mrs. Johnston and her family have taken second place to the orphanage family all during the time that Mr. Johnston has been associated with Barium.

She visits everyone on the campus, attends all programs that concern the children and enjoys and appreciates even the smallest and seemingly unimportant.

Mrs. Johnston is a sincere friend, a lovable Chirstian and an inspiration to all.

(FORM OF BEQUEST)
"I give and bequeath to the Regents of the Orphans' Home of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina, Incorporated under the laws of the state of North Carolina, (here name the bequest).

Nathan Neely Fleming

By Robert S. Arrowood

But for the intervention of Providence Rev. N. N. Fleming would have presided at the opening of the Synod of North Carolina and would have preached the opening sermon.

The writer was a life time friend of Neely Fleming. During childhood we went to the same school at Woodleaf; fished and swam in Third Creek together; and joined Old Unity Church and attended there as members, and sat together in a Sunday School Class. We were in College and Seminary together, rooming together one year.

I might tell a number of anecdotes showing his smart mind and quick wit. In College he used his time in a remarkable way. With the aid of some scholarships and his own efforts he paid his way and had a little money to lend. His mind worked when he was asleep. One night he had failed to solve a problem in higher mathematics, but when eleven o'clock came he went to bed as always. In the small hours of the morning he came suddenly and completely awake with a formula for the solution of the problem in the top of his mind. He switched on the light, reached out for his pencil, and wrote a few figures on the plastered wall. Next morning the complete solution was easily arrived at.

In the fifty years of our friendship I never knew him to do a mean or sinful thing; I never heard him say an untrue, or profane or unkind word; he was a man of God.

The following is the Memorial to Mr. Fleming written by Rev. W. M. Baker and adopted by Orange Presbytery.

Nathan Neely Fleming was born at Mt. Vernon in Rowan County, North Carolina, October 7, 1889.

He received his early education in the schools of Rowan County and in obedience to the call of God to preach the Gospel, he entered Davidson College in the Fall of 1908 and was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in June 1912. After teaching school for two years, he entered Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Virginia, September 1914 and graduated in the Spring of 1917 with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

Concord Presbytery licensed him to preach in June 1917 and later in the same month Albemarle Presbytery ordained him to the full Gospel Ministry and installed him as assistant pastor in the Tarboro Presbyterian Church. While assistant pastor at Tarboro, he supplied Nahalah and Scotland Neck Presbyterian churches. After a year's happy work as assistant pastor at Tarboro, he was called to serve Pinetops and Enfield for a year's pastorate, and then Pinetops and Falkland for another year. He became pastor of the Delgado and Winter Park Presbyterian churches in Wilmington, North Carolina, in 1921 and served till 1924, when he was called to the Farmville Presbyterian Church or a two years' fruitful pastorate.

In 1926 the Hawfields and Bethlehem Presbyterian churches in Orange Presbytery called him. While serving these churches he was Stated Supply of a small group at Saxapahaw and later at Efland, North Carolnia. In 1931 Hawfields Church called him for his full time. His ministry in this large country field had been richly blessed but upon his entering a full time ministry, the work developed greatly, and the membership grew rapidly.

Mr. Fleming married Miss Jessamine Roberts Booth, August 29, 1918. To this marriage were born six children: Three daughters, Mary Rosa, of Fuquay Springs and the home, Jessamine Roberts (Mrs. Victor P. Owens,) Emporia, Va., and Lucy Lowman, of the home; three sons, Nathan Neely, Jr., of Hawfields Community, and the Rev. Russell Flemings, pastor of St. Andrews and Buffalo Presbyterian Churches in Lee County, North Carolina, and Willis, who died at the age of four.

Mr. Fleming was a loyal and devoted pastor. His large congregation was scattered over a wide community and overflowed into other communities, but none lived too far away to receive his personal systematic oversight and ministry. He loved his young people and devoted his fine gifts and graces to counciling and serving them. It was his dream to see a proposed Fellowship Building to serve the varied needs of his young people completed. All groups among his congregation received their full share in his ministering.

He was a sincere preacher of the Word of God and divided it rightly and faithfully to his people. He made the truth so plain that the large group of children, who always filled several pews in the front, could understand. He was a watcher for souls and expected a harvest from the seed sown. He led his people in Bible Study and helped them in spiritual growth.

Mr. Fleming was a faithful Presbyter. He was always in attendance upon the meetings of the church courts. This faithfulness was rewarded by appointments upon many important committees and Commissions. His brethren trusted and honored him. He was Moderator of Presbytery, represented his Presbytery at the General Assembly on numerous occasions, and in September 1948 the Synod of North Carolina, at its meeting in Montreat, North Carolina, elected him Moderator. He was Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery from 1930 to 1948. He was a Trustee of Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, North Carolina, for sixteen years.

He was active in the civic life of his community and county. He served a number of terms as Chaplain of the State Grange and was Chairman for the Christian Rural Overseas Relief Program for North Carolina, under the North Carolina Council of Churches. He was President of the Congress of Parents and Teachers of Alexander-Wilson School in his home community.

He was an active leader and wise counselor in the Young People's Work of Orange Presbytery and the Synod of North Carolina. In all of their Council Meetings, Rallies, Conferences, and Camps, he was a wise teacher, a sympathetic counselor, a trusted friend and a faithful guide.

Mr. Fleming had an optimistic outlook on life that revealed an inner calm, a quiet faith in God and his fellowmen that enabled him to see real good in mankind and believe that God's truth would triumph in this world.

He trusted implicitly in Christ as Saviour and Lord and walked humbly in the light of that faith. He was an inspiring friend, an entertaining companion and a tireless worker in the vineyard of our Lord.

Having run his course and finished his work he slipped quietly away in the early hours of October 7, 1948. It was his birthday, a glorious going home.

We laid him to rest in the quiet cemetery of the historical old church, where he had served for twenty-two fruitful, happy years, amid a grateful and devoted people who will keep green the memories of their genial pastor.

'Well done thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.'

The Message of the

tude was wide-spread, it was the common public opinion of Him.

Today there would be very few who would disclaim that Christ was a great prophet. The Mohammedan faith ascribes that to Him. All the world's unbelievers would probably agree that he was a matchless teacher, a seer into difficult and unknown things. Perhaps even the Communist could say that. But we say that that is not enough, that it can never be enough. That unless Jesus Christ is the Son of God he can never prove adequate to meet our needs.

If God was in Christ, and if he loved me and gave himself for me, then all problems are solved and all wants are satisfied.

"Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in Thee I find."

We have seen that public opinion doubted Christ to be the promised of God. There was another phase of that unwelcome doubt in the life of John the Baptist. The whole country was in a state of excitement about Jesus. Somehow the followers of John had brought word of these things to John in prison at Macharea.

And now perhaps he was wondering, "Here I am in prison, and Jesus isn't doing anything about it." He had been put in prison by Herod, and now he was depressed and discouraged by this long imprisonment. What could it mean? If Jesus were truly adequate could he not do something about it? And so he sent two of his followers to ask Jesus plainly, "Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?"

And I wonder if that cry hasn't been echoed countless times when people find themselves in the grip of some personal tragedy. If Christ is really adequate, then why, O why has this tragedy befallen me? And yet doesn't the very question suggest a lack of understanding of Christ's real mission. That His real purpose is the salvation of our souls, that sometimes our own personal comfort and safety has to be subjected to that larger and divine purpose.

To these doubts Jesus has an answer in the form of a - -

II. Welcome reassurance

His first word of reassurance is directed to John. "Go tell John what things ye have seen and heard, how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached." This was the answer. There are eye-witnesses to all these things. People have seen them, they cannot be doubted. Now let your faith tell you what these things mean. Surely it must have been answer enough for John the Baptist. For here are evidences beyond doubt that Jesus Christ is more than a man, more than a prophet.

Then Jesus goes to point out that the prophecies of Scripture are fulfilled in John, in that he was a forerunner, a messenger, to prepare the way for Him. And now He has come, and He has vindicated his mission by the wonderful work that have been performed. So how is it possible for them to doubt further. When these things are seen through the eyes of faith, it cannot be doubted that He is indeed the one for whom they were looking. Nor could it be doubted that he was indeed adequate for them in that he was able to meet all their needs.

Nor in the light of this Scripture can we deny that Jesus Christ is adequate for us. We look further through in the chapter and see two responses to Jesus that seem representative of people in every age. There was the response of Simon and there was the response of the wicked woman.

Simon was a Pharisee who asked Jesus to dine at his house. Why he did it we can't see, for his reception of Jesus was certainly not very cordial. It wasn't even courteous. First he failed to meet Jesus at the door with water for His feet which was one of the common courtesies. He did not greet him with a kiss as was the custom, and he did not provide oil to anoint his head. And it all reveals that there must have been hostility to Jesus on the part of Simon.

The woman, who is described as a "wicked woman" in other words, a woman of the street, could not have been invited to the house of Simon. She had come in uninvited, ready to be treated rudely as she was sure to be, simply because she felt that in Jesus was the answer to all her need. The simple courtesies that Simon had failed to perform, she did. She washed his feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair. She poured costly ointment on them that she doubtless could hardly afford. She showed the love and respect for Jesus that in Simon seemed so sadly lacking.

And it was in this that the meanness of Simon's soul shows itself. "Why," he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have percieved what manner of woman this is, which toucheth him, that she is a sinner." And in those words Simon reveals his own response to Jesus. Simon was self-centered, arrogant in his beliefs, and quite sure that if Jesus had any special relationship to God that He would never associate with such a sinful woman. Simon had no idea of the compassion, or the mercy, or the love of God.

Well, certainly Christ can never be adequate for such a soul as that. For any such attitude shows plainly that the person has not any conception of God as He really is. Christ, the Son of God? Why Simon could not even believe Him a prophet of God, and do the things that he was constantly doing.

And so can't we see that for Christ to be adequate for us requires first of all something of us? It requires that we first of all realize that God is primarily a God of love and mercy.

And it further requires that we see clearly our own sinfulness and our own lack in the sight of God. Simon is his self-suffiency could not even see a glimmer of that basic truth.

The woman, on the other hand, knew her own sin and she realized God's love. And that was the basis of her right response to Jesus. To her Jesus was adequate, he was able to meet all her need.

And Jesus accepted her love, and he told those who were present the reason for it. This woman had repented of her misdeeds, her soul had been cleansed. And Jesus said to her very simply, "Thy faith hath saved thee, go in peace." Or better, we might translate it, "go into peace." She was bidden to go forth into life in peace, peace with God, peace within her own soul.

Is Jesus adequate? Yes. Yes, there can be no doubt that Jesus is adequate. For the life of this woman proves it. Is it sin that spoils life, it in sin that makes it sometimes mean and hateful, it is sin that stands between us and our God. And khen that sin is removed, then life may be lived in happiness and satisfaction and peace. And it is Jesus alone who can remove sin and make that wonderful life possible for us all.

We need never look for another. For this is the one that should come even as the angel promised, "And thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save the people from their sins."

The first time Synod ever met at Barium was in 1897. The meeting was convened at Salisbury. Dr. Rumple, pastor at Salisbury, had been chairman of the Board of Regents from the beginning. So Synod came over from Salisbury on November 5, 1897 to Barium that they might dedicate a new building which on the program was called "Center Building." This was done to give the chairman the delightful surprise which came when the name was announced as "Rumple Hall." Distinguished men on that program were Dr. J. M. Rose, Dr. J. B. Shearer and Dr. Thornwell Jacobs.

Again the Synod visited Barium in 1911. Synod had met in Charlotte. One day was set aside and by means of a special train the delegates came to Center Church for an historical program and the unveiling of a tablet commemorating the founding of the Synod of the Carolinas in Center Church in 1788. Synod then took the train to Barium Springs, inspected the Home and returned to Charlotte.

In 1926 and in 1936 Synod was jointly entertained by Statesville, Mitchell College, and Presbyterian Orphan's Home. In 1941 for the first time all the sessions of Synod were held on the grounds of the Home. Three hundred and fifty-six ministers and elders were registered for that meeting of Synod.

Again in 1944 the Synod met at Presbyterian Orphans' Home. There was a record attendance of 371; 230 ministers and 141 ruling elders. There were four visiting brethren and many outside speakers.

If every Presbyterian minister in the Synod were to attend that would be 416. And every church were represented that would be 581, that would be a total of 997. Those are the figures of 1947-'48. The number of ministers has increased and churches have been organized. The possible enrollment is now well over a thousand. Well come on! The more the merrier.

Hi Friends,

Once again we bring you our little bit of gossip and news from the best cottage on the campus, "The Annie Louise."

Everyone has finally skipped and hopped back from their vacations now, and we are once again a big family. We are sure that everyone that went away had a wonderful time, including the nine that went from our cottage. Only one out of the nine that went home to stay. We truely hope she finds as many friends there, as she had here. We are looking forward to the day when she will come back to visit us.

Since we last wrote to you, we have recieved two new girls at our fair cottage. They are shiny new, and their names are Carol Moore, 8, and Sue Moore, 6. We are trying with all our hearts to make them happy, and no "Homesickness." We are sure they will love dear Barium as we do.

The first week in August held a new and different thrill for all of us. We are sure you have heard of our beloved, "Camp Fellowship," at one time or another. We, the Annie Louise girls, and the Synod boys, spent a whole week down there. You can rest assured we had a wonderful time. That week we looked like," Sneaks"! Lipstick, rouge, powder (of any kind), bubble gum, and fingernail polish took the place of our skin.What a time our matron and big sisters had at the weeks end!We are now beginning to show signs of cleanliness, once more.

There seems to be coming to Barium, another dry spell. We do hope our flowers don't dry up and die. We have put out a great deal of effort with our flowers this summer, with the aid of our matron. She, of course, is a flower lover, much to our advantage. The cottage stays decorated all the time. Our lovely flowers and shiny floor, make a wonderful combination, don't you think?

During the latter part of July both of our big sisters were away on vacation. The matron has been everywhere bragging on how we took over their work. This makes us feel proud, and we shall be glad to do it again sometime.

One of our big sisters is away to camp. I guess we'll be able to pull her through. If we aren,t able to, then awful things may happen at our cottage.

Our precious teacher, Miss Blakney, is on the campus. However, she isn't living with us. She is substituting for one of the matrons while she is gone on vacation. She had better come and live with us again, for our cottage, classroom, and cottage news won't be much of anything without her.

Two or more weeks until school starts. Vacations end and homework begins. Being together with our friends is something we all look forward to with great enthusiasm. Wish us luck on our first report cards.

Until September.

—The Annie Louise Girls

RUMPLE HALL

Hi There,

Vacation is almost over and most of us are back home again. All of us had a wonderful time. Miss Ellis our matron has gone on her vacation and we all hope she has a very nice time. Miss Blakney is our matron while she is gone.

Camp has already started and the Synod boys and Annie Louise girls are at camp now. The Howard girls and the Lees boys are going next week. The ones that did not get a vacation at Rumple Hall, Woman's Building, Jennie Gilmer and Quads get to go the third week.

We have all been having a nice time in swimming. Most of us have learned how to swim or dive.

We will have our June, July, and August Birthday table on August 25th. We have about five girls to go from Rumple Hall.

We are anxiously looking forward to the opening of school. Most of us are in the sixth or seventh grades.

So long until next time.

INFIRMARY NEWS

Dear Friends,

Since you last heard from our crowd we have received into our crowd Jeanne Turlington. She fits right in with the rest of us.

Lately all that we "Nurses" have been hearing is I have an ear ache. We've had quite a few patients lately having ear-aches, stomach aches, and etc.

We have been on vacations and had wonderful times. All of us were glad to get back though.

School is almost here and everyone seems to be looking forward to it.

Now that Herbert Good has left us, we feel sure that Terrell Hall will take his place at the Infirmary. (That is in the living room of course, on date nite.)

The two Buie sisters, Sadie and Dewie have been substitute matrons at the Infirmary this summer. We certainly have enjoyed them being our matrons. Wish they could stay longer with us, it's good to have them around.

Mrs. Finley hasn't been on her vacation yet. She is looking forward to hers still. Hope she will be able to go home soon.

Mrs. Harwell is on her vacation now. We're so sorry to hear that her brother has died during this time. I'm afraid it won't be much of a vacation. We're looking forward to her return. Hurry back Mrs. Annie.

Charles Green is the Infirmary's mascot. He stays down here as much as anyone else on the campus does, therefore we're going to adopt him as our mascot. He's a darling, you ought to see him. Don't be surprised when you ask him something if he says, "I don't know."

I'll say now, "I don't know" anymore news.

—The Infirmary,

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hi Folks,

Here we are again with the news of our cottage.

Camp has started and Lee's cottage and our cottage go August the 8th, and come back the 13th. During our five days at camp we get to wear fingernail polish, lipstick, and rooge. We also have bubble gum contests, jump rope contests, and hop scotch contests.

We have been getting beans lately. One Monday we got 7 crates of string beans and later on that day we got 7 crates of butterbeans. After working all day with very little success, we invited the Lees boys to come over after supper to help us finish. With their help we finished the butterbeans in an hour then we played a game. We only had 2 cratees of string beans left to do the next morning.

We had a watermelon feast on Friday July 29th. Everyone of us enjoyed it. Some of us ate as much as 5 or 6 peices.

All of us are back from vacations except Mary Glenn.

Good bye now.
